

Get Set for School is a school readiness program intended for children ages 4 and 5. This unique program, designed and taught by a certified teacher, caters to a variety of learning styles through the use of mediums such as music, dance / movement, word games, tactile experience and traditional seat work. The award winning Handwriting Without Tears Pre-K program will also be followed in order to develop alphabet and number recognition / formation, counting skills, drawing, shapes and colors. This multi-faceted class plays on the natural curiosity of this age group while teaching the basics needed to prepare your little one for school.
